SHEILAH WINN SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

In the early hours of Thursday morning our senior Shakespearian thespians, under the experienced guidance of Mr and Mrs Potter and Mrs Sweney, set out for Wellington and their weekend of theatre workshops and performance. We wish them the very best for their endeavours - Break a leg!

KAI WARMER

Some students are not putting their names on food for the Kai Warmer, including some senior students. Please use a vivid/felt pen and write your name and Room/Class Number clearly.

GUMBOOT DAY

$307.80 was raised for Gumboot Day. The money goes to the 'I am Hope' cause. Here are Room 8 students showing off their colourful array of gumboots.

REMEMBERING OUR PAST

Last Saturday was the 68th anniversary of Sir Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay summiting Mt Everest. This image 'from the archives' shows the illustrious pair visiting 'Twizel School'.

MACKENZIE BOOK AND ART FESTIVAL

Final deadline's for the two competitions - art and prose - have been extended to 15 June and we'd really love more entries! We have also launched our Photography competition and I encourage anyone with a camera to enter - the Mackenzie lends itself to great photos so do get involved.

<https://www.createfestivalnz.co.nz/photo-competition>

Cover Art Competition

We are inviting students from across the Mackenzie to create an image that will be used on the front cover of the festival programme.

The criteria are:

- Open to students of all ages attending Mackenzie schools

- Theme – create, mackenzie
- A5 vertical
- Text to include: 'Mackenzie Book & Art Festival' (size 14 Font) and '17 September – 3 October 2021' (size 14 font)
- Space for logo to be superimposed onto image (at least 10cm w x 3cm h)

Entries Open – 5 May 2021 and close on 15 June 2021.

The winning entry receives

- Publication on the cover of the festival programme with national distribution
- Friends of the festival perks
- $200 booksellers tokens
- Their school receives $200 credit at The Twizel Bookshop.

Prose Competition

The Mackenzie Book & Art Festival, Create, will be bringing New Zealand's best authors to the region but also want to recognise the talent we have locally and create opportunities for young writers to be published and read by all those visiting the region for the Festival.

We are inviting students from across the Mackenzie to write a short story or an essay/creative non-fiction on the theme of the Mackenzie.

The criteria are:

- Open to students of all ages attending Mackenzie schools
- Theme Mackenzie
- Non-Fiction or Fiction
- 500-2000 words

Entries close on 15 June 2021.

The winner will be chosen by a panel of NZ authors, chaired by Laurence Fearnley.

The winning entry receives

- Publication in local Newspapers during the festival.
- Publication on the festival website
- Quotation from the work published on the official festival bookmark.
- Friends of the festival perks
- $200 booksellers tokens
- Their school receives $200 credit at The Twizel Bookshop

Empty Ice Cream containers needed!

Kia ora koutou,
Some of you might remember Kare, the kakī /black stilt mascot from last Year "Vote for kakī " campaign. The team at the kakī recovery programme need a lot of empty ice cream containers and Kare thought you might be able to help?

Bring them to school and leave them at the office with Debbie .

Ngā mihi nui!

Kare and the kakī team.

FIREWOOD RAFFLE

Twizel Area School Raffle
6 Draws of approximately
5 cubic metres of firewood.
